Experience the power of art in a welcoming and inclusive space! LGBTQ+ students and their families, along with their closest allies and loved ones, are invited to unleash their creativity at the Orlando Museum of Art.

Guests will tour the museum's galleries and explore powerful queer stories, identities, and artists from OMA's permanent collection before engaging in a reflective art journaling workshop with a queer teaching artist. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to create meaningful art, explore queer stories, and connect with a supportive community!

NOTE: Parents are invited, but not required to attend. Students may attend on their own. If attending alone or being dropped off, students must bring a completed Hold Harmless form (back of this flyer).
