EXHIBITIONS & INSTALLATIONS

EXHIBITIONS

From Alice to Zeus: The Art of John Rocco. July 14 – October 28, 2012. Mr. and Mrs. Chesley G. Magruder II Gallery. Organized by the Orlando Museum of Art. Curated by Maureen McKenna, Associate Curator. Made possible by Sponsors Warren and Augusta Hume Foundation and Walt Disney World Resort. Additional support provided by Ambassadors, Council of 101 and The Chesley G. Magruder Foundation. The 8th exhibition in the Museum's annual Art of the Picture Book Series and featured approximately 60 preparatory drawings and finished illustrations by John Rocco. He is best known for creating the cover art for Rick Riordan’s bestselling youth literature series, Percy Jackson and the Olympians and The Kane Chronicles. Rocco has served as author and illustrator for several popular picture books including the 2012 Caldecott Honor Book Blackout. Most recently, Rocco created the illustrations for The Flint Heart, the latest book by Katherine Paterson, Newbery Medal-winning author, and John Paterson.

Southernmost Art and Literary Portraits: Photographs of Fifty Internationally Noted Artists by Jimm Roberts. August 4 – October 28, 2012. Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brooker, Sr. Grand Gallery. Organized by the Orlando Museum of Art. Curated by Hansen Mulford, Curator. Made possible by Lead Sponsor Dr. Phillips Charities and Sponsors Ambassadors, Council of 101 and in memory of Joseph D. Robinson, IV. This project was funded in part by Orange County Government through the Arts & Cultural Affairs Program. In-kind support provided by Fry Hammond Barr and Visit Orlando. The exhibition featured Orlando-based portrait photographer Jimm Roberts. In the 1980s and 1990s, Roberts traveled throughout Florida to meet, photograph and interview prominent artists and writers then living in the State. The photographs are sensitive, engaging images of these exceptional individuals that often reveal telling qualities of their personalities. With the rich tones of traditional black-and-white photography, Roberts captured his subjects in a variety of poses from formal to candid in the surroundings of their Florida homes and studios. The exhibition included 80 photographs and a selection of original notes and letters by the artists and writers.

Master Class: Photography by Students of Jimm Roberts. August 12 - October 28, 2012. Frank M. Hubbard Hall and Council of 101 Grand Gallery Hall. Organized by the Orlando Museum of Art. Curated by Hansen Mulford, Curator. Presented in conjunction with Southernmost Art and Literary Portraits: Photographs of Fifty Internationally Noted Artists and Writers in Florida by Jimm Roberts. From 1971 to 1981, Jimm Roberts established a photography program at the Orlando Museum of Art, then called the Loch Haven Art Center. His popular classes and workshops were enjoyed by both amateur enthusiasts and those who went onto professional careers. In honor of Roberts’ exhibition at the Museum, a number of his past students had generously lent work they produced while under Roberts’ tutelage for this exhibition. Roberts’ educational philosophy encouraged his students to see with a fresh perspective and develop a personal aesthetic. While technical understanding was an important part of the program, Roberts was most interested in having students explore photography’s expressive possibilities. Some... of his assignments, which resulted in works seen in this exhibition, included photographing a subject showing only its shadow or reflection, experimenting with cropping to find the picture’s strongest visual elements and self-portraiture.

Contemporary Glass Sculpture: Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Studio Glass. December 22, 2012 – May 12, 2013. Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brooker, Sr. Grand Gallery and Mr. and Mrs. Chesley G. Magruder I Gallery. Organized by the Orlando Museum of Art. Curated by Hansen Mulford, Curator. Made possible by Lenders David and Judy Albertson; Arnold and Susan Bierman; Roy and Connie Brand; Sydney Cash; Claire Oliver Gallery, New York; Alan and Kelly Ginsburg; Stephen H. Goldman; Habatat Galleries, Michigan; Stephen Knapp; Lombard Contemporary Art, Florida; Michael A. Mennello; Robert Mickelsen; Mindy Solomon Gallery, Florida; Neil and Francine Newberg; William D. and Norma Canelas Roth; Gary and Barbara Sorensen; Paul J. Stankard; Therman Statom; Charles and Lynn Steinmetz; and Private Collectors. This project was funded in part by Orange County Government through the Arts & Cultural Affairs Program. Made possible by Patrons Ambassadors and Council of 101; Sponsors The Chesley G. Magruder Foundation and Harriett Lake; and Sustaining Partners Art Alliance for Contemporary Glass, Scott Brown and Jim Duncan of Raymond James and State of Florida, Division of Cultural Affairs, the Florida Council on Arts and Culture. In-kind support provided by Visit Orlando and WMFE. The exhibition featured approximately 65 works by internationally renowned artists such as Dale Chihuly, Laura de Santillana, Harvey K. Littleton, Dante Marioni, William Morris, Christopher Ries, Therman Statom, Lino Tagliapietra and many others. Also included were exciting younger artists who are taking the medium in new directions. The exhibition explored the concepts and techniques of these artists and how each uses the intrinsic characteristics of glass, its mass, fluidity, color and transmission of light for expressive purposes. The sustained efforts of artists, educators and collectors over the following 50 years have established glass as a major medium of contemporary art with an enthusiastic public following.

Light from Within: Snap! Homegrown Exhibition by Central Florida Photographers. May 2 – 26, 2013. Martin and Gracia Andersen Parkview Gallery. Organized by the Orlando Museum of Art in partnership with Snap! Orlando. Curated by Hansen Mulford, Curator, and Azela Santana, Exhibitions Coordinator. Explored lighting and hope with images of interaction, emotion, reflection and light from within. Featured Central Florida photographers Eric Bor, Geoff Levy, Yuri Maiorov, Brian Minnich and Brooks Potteiger who invited you, through their documentation and creative exploration, to experience an authentic moment of societal interaction with one another, nature and spirituality.

Living in Style: African Art of Everyday Life from the Collection of William D. and Norma Canelas Roth. July 1, 2012 – June 30, 2013. Lockheed Martin Gallery. Organized by the Orlando Museum of Art. Curated by Hansen Mulford, Curator. The tenth in a series of exhibitions drawn from the Norma Canelas and William D. Roth Collection of African Art. The core of this exhibition was a selection of ceremonial and functional weapons from cultures throughout Africa. The implements of copper, bronze, iron and steel were extraordinarily expressive in form and exquisite in their craftsmanship. Throughout Africa, traditional weaponry follows patterns that convey important meaning within each culture. Spears, swords and axes are a part of the regalia of the warrior, the elder or the king, symbols of power and prestige with the community. Additionally, the exhibition included tunics, headdresses, sheaths and other beautifully adorned objects, which provided context for these weapons. The Roth Collection has been recognized by Art and Antiques Magazine numerous times as one of the top 100 art collections in America.

Teacher Professional Development Workshops – Teachers visited the galleries to see the artwork selected for the distributed lesson plans, learned how to teach from original works of art and learned innovative teaching strategies to bring back to the classroom. The program was open to all Orange, Seminole, Lake and Osceola County teachers. 2 workshops were held on October 4: The Art of Visual Storytelling and Florida Photography in Focus; Glass Galore was held February 7. 68 teachers participated.

COMMUNITY ACCESS/HEALING ARTS PROGRAMS

Art’s the Spark – The OMA’s popular outreach program for seniors in congregate living sites used art reproductions and hands-on objects to spark discussions to encourage reminiscing and lifelong learning.

Art’s the Spark @ OMA – This monthly Saturday morning program, designed for adults with memory impairment and their healthy caregivers, helped increase mental stimulation, socialization, and encouraged physical dexterity. Presented when the museum was closed to the general public, it provided a safe and welcoming environment, and included gallery discussion and an art-making activity in the studio. Lockheed Martin provided support for this program. 239 participants.

Creative Connections – Guided tours that are adapted and enhanced for students ages 7-22 with disabilities and special needs were offered monthly throughout the year. This program, designed for the whole family, included tours and sketching in the galleries and studio fun. Lockheed Martin provided support for this program. 86 participants.

Family Art Outreach Program at the Coalition for the Homeless – This outreach program for at-risk youth and their families living at the Coalition during fall 2012 and spring 2013 consisted of weekly evening art classes as well as special family weekend workshops throughout the year and field trips to the OMA. One of the highlights of the year was a fused glass jewelry workshop in March with glass artist Duncan McClellan. This program was made possible by a Disney Helping Kids Shine grant award. 256 participants.

Hospital Artreach – The Orlando Museum of Art worked with the new Nemours Children’s Hospital to offer outreach storytelling and art programs to children and their families. During spring 2013, two programs were presented to 9 children.
PARTNERSHIPS

Digital Archive – The Orlando Museum of Art initiated a plan to create a digital archive for Hispanic Art in celebration of 2013 and the 500th anniversary of Ponce de Leon’s arrival in Florida. The Museum partnered with representatives from UCF, Government of Mexico, and Orange County Public Schools.

The Resource Center (TRC) – In cooperation with the University of Central Florida’s (UCF’s) College of Education, the Orlando Museum of Art developed TRC to provide materials for innovative techniques in teaching and to establish a strong connection to the art education program at the University.

TRC provides resource trunks, learning kits, poster-size reproductions of art, slides, books and videos related to the Museum’s Permanent Collections of American art, African art and Art of the Ancient Americas and previous temporary exhibitions to students, teachers and educational institutions throughout Central Florida.

VOLUNTEER SUPPORT

Docents – Maryann Keane was Chairman of the Docent Corps in FY2012-2013. The Docent Corps is the heart of the Orlando Museum of Art’s education department. The word “docent” is derived from the Latin term for teacher. These devoted volunteers represent the Museum to visitors – the welcoming, friendly faces that help make art enjoyable and understandable.

They are distinguished from other Museum volunteers by the training they receive and their dedication to visitors. In FY2012-2013, the Docent Corps included 50 men and women who devoted thousands of hours participating in on-going continuing education and providing tours for audiences of all ages, from pre-school children to adults.

Docents are especially vital to the School Learning Trip program and they engaged over 10,500 students and teachers in looking at art during FY2012-2013. New docent training included an introduction to art and its various forms and approaches, knowledge of Orlando Museum of Art permanent collections, information about visitors, different learning styles, and interpretive techniques. Eleven training sessions were conducted September 12–December 12, 2012 with 8 new docents graduating from the program.
VOLUNTEERS

Last year, 511 volunteers contributed 25,307 hours to the Orlando Museum of Art for an estimated value of $510,493. Their generous service was honored at the Volunteer Appreciation Reception in May, where Ted R. Brown, Esq., was recognized as Volunteer of the Year. Below are listed volunteers who assisted in some of the major events and services of the Museum year.

FUNDRAISERS

FESTIVAL OF TREES

The Festival of Trees, the major fundraiser for the Museum, brings thousands of people to the Museum each year. Dozens of Central Florida businesses and individual designers sponsor trees and created decadent decorations and displays.

ANTIQUES VINTAGE & GARDEN SHOW

The Council of 101 presented its 32nd Annual Antiques Vintage & Garden Show featuring highly respected dealers offering an array of fine quality antique furniture, paintings, jewelry, oriental rugs, porcelain and vintage collectibles as well as inspiration from expert home and garden designers.
MEMBERSHIP

Membership support provided $117,097 to help maintain the Museum as an important cultural and educational resource for all of Florida while providing special benefits with the Museum and reciprocal organizations.

SUPPORT

SEASON SPONSORS

The Orlando Museum of Art is a privately owned 501(c)3 nonprofit corporation that serves to enrich the cultural life of Florida by providing excellence in the visual arts. The Museum is supported by the generosity of individuals, corporations and foundations through several annual funding opportunities. The Museum’s Season Sponsorship Program provides essential programmatic support for the entire season, July 1 through June 30 each year. Through this important support, the Museum is able to provide quality exhibitions, educational programs and outreach services to the diverse communities of the region and beyond.

The Museum has a special role in public education, centered in its capacity as an interactive place to better understand culture and the art of our time. Every donation given helps ensure that the Museum continues to thrive as a dynamic institution in Florida.

Thank you to our 2012-2013 Season Sponsors!

ACQUISITIONS SUPPORT
The connoisseurship and generosity of the Collecting Circle Groups, which includes the Friends of American Art and the Acquisition Trust, enables the continued quality and growth of the Museum's Permanent Collection. The increasing size, diversity and excellence of the Collection is an enduring tribute to the individuals who ensure the success of this program through their participation.

FRIENDS OF AMERICAN ART
Friends of American Art Members provided $121,260 through membership dues towards the purchases of exceptional American art from the 18th century through the early 20th century for the Permanent Collection when it becomes available.

As a privately funded nonprofit institution, the Orlando Museum of Art relies on the generosity of its friends and supporters to meet the enormous cost of providing important exhibitions, life changing educational programs, special events and inspiring outreach services, year-round, to thousands of local, regional, national and international visitors. There are many ways for you to contribute and many benefits in store when you choose to do so. We welcome your involvement through memberships, program and fundraiser sponsorships, annual fund giving and through our planned giving program. Our deepest appreciation to the many 2012-2013 donors whose generous support has been invaluable.

Summer Camp Brochure – May 2013
ORLANDO MUSEUM OF ART MUSEUM SHOP, 2012-13

Sales for the Museum Shop’s 2012-13 fiscal year were $124,307.00, $9307.00 more than in 2011-12, as well as almost $10,000 over the proposed budget.

Contemporary Glass Sculpture: Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Studio Glass garnered over $60,000 in sales, including sales of the 2013 Chihuly Studio Editions, glass animals, vases, paperweights, book marks, and other unique glass items.

Also selling well, the Jimm Roberts’ Southernmost Art and Literary Portraits: Photographs of Fifty Internationally Noted Artists and Writers in Florida by Jimm Roberts and From Alice To Zeus: The Art of John Rocco, from the Museum’s annual children’s picture book exhibit.

Selling well this past year were toys, especially flipbooks, pencils, Creative Whack Balls, books, and stuffed animals and dolls. Orlando Museum of Art Logo merchandise, local art work including jewelry were also on our customers lists. The always popular artistic umbrellas, holiday items, and mouse pad rugs continue to sell well in the shop.

The Museum Shop Volunteers received an Exceptional Achievement Award from the Volunteer Council for their 11,964 hours of exemplary service in support of the Museum.

The Museum Shop is open to visitors Tuesday through Sunday, with extended hours for 1st Thursdays, Festival of Trees and the Antique and Garden Show, as well as special events.

Gift certificates, gift wrapping, shipping, special orders and exceptional service continue in our Museum Shop.
