

PHOTOSHOOT PERMIT POLICIES

Thank you for choosing the Orlando Museum of Art (OMA) for your photography session. The OMA is proud to provide a unique, one-of-a-kind setting for your photos.

The qualification of a photoshoot vs. souvenir photography lies solely with the OMA. A photographer may or may not be compensated by a client and still be charged the OMA's fees for a photoshoot. Any photography by persons other than the visitor or visitors group for purposes other than purely personal enjoyment is presumed not souvenir photography. All visits for the purpose of posed portraiture are considered photoshoots, and you must obtain a permit. If you are performing non-souvenir photography on OMA property and do not have your photo permit, you and your party will be asked to leave.

For more information about filming and other photography projects at OMA, please call (407) 896-4231 ext. 233 or email marketing@omart.org.

Photoshoots are available at 11:00 AM or 2:00 PM on Tuesdays or Thursdays. Photoshoots must be booked a minimum of 1 week in advance. All Photoshoots need to have a permit and must check in at the Visitors Information Desk. Anyone without a paid reservation will not be permitted to conduct a photoshoot. Dates and times for photography sessions are reserved on a "first-come, first-served" basis, dependent upon availability and museum events.

Full payment is due at the time of your reservation. Permits are non-refundable but may be rescheduled one time only. The Museum will offer a one-time-only date transfer to another date within 30 days of your original date. To reschedule your date, please email facilityrental@omart.org.
